iM Global Partner Hires Nimo Rihwani as Western Sales Director; continues momentum in US Platform Development

Paris, Philadelphia and London, July 9, 2019 - iM Global Partner, an investment and development platform focused on acquiring strategic investments in best-in-class traditional and alternative investment firms in the U.S., Europe and Asia, today announces the appointment of Nimo Rihwani as Western Sales Director of iM Global Partner US (iMGPU). He is joining the US team led by Jeffrey Seeley, Deputy CEO and Head of U.S. Distribution of iM Global Partner.

Mr. Rihwani joined iMGPU as Western Sales Director on June 24th. He will cover California, Arizona, Nevada, Oregon, and Washington. With almost 20 years of experience in the asset management industry, Mr. Rihwani has cultivated relationships with many financial advisor teams in the western US region.

“iM Global Partner is excited to welcome Nimo, who has in-depth experience in the Western U.S. and long-term relationships with many financial advisors in the region,” said Mr. Seeley. “He is an excellent fit for our firm as we continue to build momentum in the US with new partners, new products, and a commitment to accelerate our U.S. investments and distribution network in 2019 and beyond.”

Before joining iM Global Partner, Mr. Rihwani worked for JP Morgan Asset Management, The Hartford Mutual Funds, James Alpha Management and Aquila Group of Funds. “We continue to invest significantly in building out our U.S. platform, having added five partners and two products so far, with a plan to continue to build out our US staff over the next few years,” added Mr. Seeley. “We look for unique and independent boutique investment firms who can benefit from a strong distribution platform and a strategic partnership that can provide multi-asset, multi-channel distribution and sub-advisory services.”

The five iMGP partners in the U.S. span multiple asset classes and investment strategies, including:

- Fundamental growth, long-term US and global equities - Polen Capital
- Fundamental value, long-term fixed income - Dolan McEniry Capital
- Long-term and long-short equities, U.S. and global - Sirios Capital
- Liquid alternatives and managed futures - Dynamic Beta Investments
- Fundamental value, long-term US equities - Scharf Investments

iM Global Partner and Dolan McEniry Capital launched the iM Dolan McEniry Corporate Bond Fund (Institutional Class Ticker: IDMIX) on September 28, 2018, the first of a series of jointly marketed investment funds with partner firms. A second fund, the iM DBi Managed Futures Strategy ETF (Ticker: MFDB) in partnership with Dynamic Beta investments (DBi) has been launched on May 8, 2019.

Opinions expressed are subject to change at any time, are not guaranteed and should not be considered investment advice.

References to other mutual funds should not to be considered an offer to buy or sell these securities.

iM Dolan McEniry Corporate Bond Fund Risks: Mutual Fund Investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. Investments in debt securities typically decrease in value when interest rates rise. This risk is usually greater for longer-term debt securities. Investments by the Fund in lower-rated securities presents a greater risk of loss of principal and interest than higher-rated securities. Foreign securities are subject to risks relating to political, social, economic developments abroad and differences between U.S. and foreign regulatory requirements and market practices, including fluctuations in foreign currencies.

iM DBi Managed Futures Strategy ETF Risks: Investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. Shares of any ETF are bought and sold at market price (not NAV), may trade at a discount or premium to NAV and are not individually redeemed from the funds. Brokerage commissions will reduce returns. The Fund is “non-diversified,” so it may invest a greater percentage of its assets in the securities of a single issuer. As a result, a decline in the value of an investment in a single issuer could cause the Fund’s overall value to decline to a greater degree than if the Fund held a more diversified portfolio.

The Fund should be considered highly leveraged and is suitable only for investors with high tolerance for investment risk. Futures contracts and forward contracts can be highly volatile, illiquid and difficult to value, and changes in the value of such instruments held directly or indirectly by the Fund may not correlate with the underlying instrument or reference assets, or the Fund's other investments. Derivative instruments and futures contracts are subject to occasional rapid and substantial fluctuations. Taking a short position on a derivative instrument or security involves the risk of a theoretically unlimited increase in the value of the underlying instrument. Exposure to the commodities markets may subject the Fund to greater volatility than investments in traditional securities. Exposure to foreign currencies subjects the Fund to the risk that those currencies will change in value relative to the U.S. Dollar. By investing in the Subsidiary, the Fund is indirectly exposed to the risks associated with the Subsidiary's investments. Fixed income securities, or derivatives based on fixed income securities, are subject to credit risk and interest rate risk.

The iM Dolan McEniry Corporate Bond Fund and the iM DBi Managed Futures Strategy ETF are distributed by Quasar Distributors, LLC.
