

iM Global Partner appoints Alexandra NALLET Group Chief Compliance Officer

Paris, May 25, 2021, iM Global Partner has announced the appointment of Alexandra NALLET as Managing Director - Group Chief Compliance Officer.

With 27 years' experience in Investment Banking, Private Equity, and Asset Management in the Compliance fields, Alexandra will oversee the compliance function of our asset management activity at a global level.

Prior joining iM Global Partner, Alexandra was Global Head of Compliance - US Chief Compliance Officer for CANDRIAM.

“With her long experience in international compliance, we are confident Alexandra will be a major support for the growth of our Group,” said CEO and Founder Philippe Couvrecelle.

After graduation from France's Neoma Business School, Alexandra launched her career in Paris in Investment Banking. She was particularly involved in brokerage and Liquidity Management. She became responsible for regulatory matters and then, as Head of Compliance, managed the regulatory relationship with European, UK, Swiss and US regulators.

In addition to her experience in Investment Banking, Alexandra has also held roles in Asset Management, recently at Candriam, a New-York Life Company where she was Global Head of Compliance and US Chief Compliance Officer.

Alexandra took part in the writing of Eric Vernier's book “Techniques de blanchiment et moyens de lutte” (money laundering techniques and control methods). She has also lectured at Neoma Business School.
