

May 25, 2021

---

iM Global Partner appoints group chief compliance officer

iM Global Partner has appointed Alexandra Nallet as Managing Director – Group Chief Compliance Officer.

With 27 years' experience in investment banking, private equity, and asset management in the compliance fields, Nallet will oversee the compliance function of iM Global Partner's asset management activity at a global level. Prior to joining iM Global Partner, Nallet was Global Head of Compliance - US Chief Compliance Officer for Candriam.

Philippe Couvrecelle, CEO and founder at iM Global Partner, says: "With her long experience in international compliance, we are confident Alexandra will be a major support for the growth of our Group."

After graduating from France's Neoma Business School, Nallet launched her career in Paris in investment banking. She was particularly involved in brokerage and liquidity management, and became responsible for regulatory matters and as head of compliance, managed the regulatory relationship with European, UK, Swiss and US regulators.

In addition to her experience in investment banking, Nallet has also held roles in asset management, recently at Candriam, a New York Life Company where she was global head of compliance and US chief compliance officer.

Nallet took part in the writing of Eric Vernier's book "Techniques de blanchiment et moyens de lutte" (money laundering techniques and control methods). She has also lectured at Neoma Business School.