

TSF Jazz and iM Global Partner to support young jazz musicians

Paris - April 4, 2022. iM Global Partner announced today that it will support the initiative Vive le Jazz, created to support young jazz musicians in France and to allow young people to have easier and cheaper access to jazz music.

Vive le Jazz was created by TSF Jazz, France's leading JAZZ radio station with a weekly audience of nearly 1.5 million people.

Vive le Jazz organizes concerts, live events, conferences, and master classes around jazz. As part of the association, the famous French jazz club “Duc des Lombards”, which has hosted many of the world’s top jazz musicians, has started organizing free jazz concerts on Monday or Tuesday evenings to promote young jazz musicians and attract a younger audience.

Vive le Jazz supports the club financially in these endeavors by paying for the musicians and their overheads.

iM Global Partner’s support for Vive le Jazz is part of a philanthropic policy focused on youth, with the ambition of promoting educational, cultural and scientific initiatives for the benefit of young people, regardless of the country in which the group operates.

Bruno Delport, CEO of Vive le Jazz, said: “Jazz music is constantly reinventing itself and capable of moving all kinds of audiences. A new generation of incredible musicians is emerging in France and in the world. Allowing these young people to play regularly in the most renowned club in Paris and inviting the public - especially young people- to discover them is the ambition of “Vive le Jazz”. The support of the iMGP Donations Fund has made this possible. We’d like to thank them wholeheartedly.”

Philippe Couvrecelle, Founder and CEO of iM Global Partner said: “We are very proud and pleased to support the great initiative of TSF Jazz towards young musicians helping to raise their artistic exposure to the public. Live performance is for us a key part of culture and one of the best ways to connect people with Art.”

About TSF Jazz

TSF JAZZ was the first 100% jazz radio station in France. It has been broadcasting and promoting jazz in France for more than 20 years. Thanks to the deployment of DAB+, which will replace FM, TSF JAZZ will soon be broadcast everywhere in France. Some of the musicians who have been welcomed on air include Melody Gardot, Ibrahim Maalouf, Jamie Cullum and China Moses. TSF JAZZ is also the owner of the Duc des Lombards jazz club and creator of the TSF JAZZ Chantilly festival which will be held in July this year. The radio station works daily to promote Jazz, which we believe is emancipating music, deeply human and still extremely popular in France (56% of French people surveyed said they like jazz according to a Harris Interactive poll).
